Hodges—Parkerson.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., December 3.—Miss Core Parkerson and Mr. Harry Owens Hodges were married last night at the residence of the Fourth Street Baptist Church, the Rev. C. J. D. Parker officiating. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. After the wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Lambert, 205 Second Street. Mrs. Hodges is the daughter of Captain Parkerson, of Ocean View.

Payne—Gilbert.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STUART, Va., December 4.—On account of recent illness in the family, the wedding of Mr. D. L. Payne, of Greensboro, N. C., and Miss Mamie Gilbert, of Stuart, Va., on December 2d, at 10 o'clock, was very quiet. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. R. Houchins, and was witnessed by only a few relatives and intimate friends.

Jenkins—Oliver.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CEWE, Va., December 3.—Miss Mary Oliver and Mr. Hodges Jenkins were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. Collier Oliver, Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. W. Kincheol, of the Baptist Church, officiating.

O'Brien—Gibbs.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CAPE CHARLES, Va., December 3.—An interesting wedding took place in the lower Northampton Baptist Church, when Miss Nannie Gibbs, daughter of Mr. E. E. Gibbs, of Cape Charles, became the bride of Mr. Jesse Thomas O'Brien, a merchant of Sealeview. The maid of honor was Miss Mabel Eunice O'Brien, a cousin of the groom.

Watch your laundress! Let her use ordinary soap for ordinary purposes.

But, for the finer things—for lawns, dimities, colored goods and everything else that requires special care in laundering—she should use Ivory Soap; and none other.

Why Ivory Soap? Because it is pure soap and nothing else. No "free" alkali in it; no coloring matter; no chemicals.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE Richmond German has issued invitations for its dances on alternate Monday evenings, the first dance to be given December 14th, from 9 to 12, in Masonic Temple.

The officers of the Richmond German are Mr. R. Carter Scott, president; Mr. Joseph E. Willard, Mr. John T. Anderson and Mr. H. W. Ellerson.

The executive committee includes Mr. Jo Lane Stern, Mr. John Currie, Mr. Joseph E. Willard, Mr. John T. Anderson and Mr. H. W. Ellerson.

The patronesses of the German for the ensuing season are Mrs. R. Carter Scott, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. William S. P. Mayo, Mrs. T. Monroe Parkins, Mrs. John T. Anderson, Mrs. William H. Palmer, Jr., Mrs. Levin Joyner, Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, Mrs. Edward C. Mayo, Mrs. Edmund O. McCabe, Mrs. Edward J. Willis and Mrs. A. S. Buford, Jr.

A card inclosed with each of the invitations calls the attention of members to the fact that, under club rules, the Germans will be started at 9:30 sharp, and ended at 12:30.

The opening dance of the Richmond German is always considered as marking the formal beginning of the winter season. The ball room of Masonic Temple is handsomely decorated for the occasion, and a number of attractive debutantes are among the dancers. A much coveted distinction with the buds of the season is the honor of being invited as the partner of the leader at the first German and those which succeed it.

The Christmas and New Year's dances are rendered attractive by various special features, are brilliantly attended, and are elegant in every detail and appointment. The debutantes are always included in the invitations sent out.

Dance at Hermitage Club.
The Junior German will give a hop Saturday night, from 9 to 12. Members of the Junior society set will be present, and the evening promises to be everything that is enjoyable.

In Honor of Mrs. Sutton.
Mrs. Frederick Sanford, of Newport News, entertained informally at tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of their house guests, Mrs. H. F. Wilkinson, Mrs. Howard Sutton, Mrs. B. F. Moore, and Miss Nell Sutton, of this city, and Mrs. Thomas A. Frazier of Fredericksburg, Va.

Assisting the receiving party were Mrs. H. E. Parker, Mrs. J. Winston Read, and Miss Addie New.

Mrs. W. H. Taylor and Mrs. William Hoskins presided at the punch bowl. In the dining-room were Misses Frances Jordan, of Baltimore; Lucile Cooper, Lucile Ayler, Aliene Willett, Cielia Salley and Helen Barney.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Sanford entertained a party of young people at cards in honor of Miss Sutton. Besides the house guests those present were: Misses Nannie Reynolds, Lucile Ayler, Agnes Epps, Lucile Cooper, Frances Jordan; Messrs. Caleb D. West, W. J. Tignor, W. L. Shumate, L. A. McMurran, H. S. Reynolds, Howard Bowen, J. A. Kelley and Dr. Coleman.

Emma Andrews Club.
The Emma Andrews Whist Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Benjamin Nash, 809 West Franklin Street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of Richmond Art Club will be held to-night in 521 West Grace Street, at 8 o'clock. All the members of the club are urged to be present.

Roberts—Edmonds.
The wedding of Mrs. Scott Nelson Edmonds to Mr. Frank Boyd Roberts was celebrated yesterday in the home of the bride's brother, Mr. J. Wickliffe, of Chase City. Both bride and groom are from Chase City, and the ceremony was performed in the midst of the family and friends of the contracting parties.

Honor of Miss Crump.
Miss Mary Crump, the charming daughter of Judge and Mrs. Beverly T. Crump, who makes her bow to society this winter, will have a dance given in her honor on the evening of December 11th, by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Kilby, of 311 West Franklin Street.

All of the debutantes and a number of the unmarried members of the Richmond society will be asked to meet Miss Crump, and the dance will be one of the prettiest and pleasantest of December debutante affairs.

For Miss McGuire.
Miss Susie McGuire, the debutante daughter of Mrs. Frank McGuire, was given a beautiful dance Wednesday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. Langbourne N. Williams, of 500 West Franklin Street.

Pink roses, palms, narcissi and asparagus fern proved most artistic as decorations. Debutantes of this and a previous winter and the young society men of Richmond made up the majority of the evening's invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Langbourne Williams stood in line with Mrs. and Miss McGuire, and Miss Josephine Elliott.

Mrs. Fred Nolting presided at the punch table.

Kilby—Amos.

Pit-Ache

"I suffered agony," writes Mrs. Flowers, of Sparks, Okla., "for 6 years, with pains at the pit of my stomach and in my back and side. I thought I was past curing, as I had tried several different medicines without relief."

"About two months ago, I began the use of Cardui and it did me more good than anything I had tried, so that my next period passed with little or no pain."

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

If you doubt that Cardui will help you, why not try it?

It is safe and harmless, made from purely vegetable ingredients, that act in a gentle, natural manner, on the womanly organs, and cannot do anything but good, to young or old.

Thousands of ladies have written to tell of its benefit to them.

Try Cardui, for you. All reliable druggists sell it.

Kilby—Amos.
The wedding of Miss Clara Woodward Amos to Mr. Henry Clay Kilby was celebrated Wednesday at 11 A. M. in the home of Mr. J. C. Walters, of 412 West Clay Street, the Rev. B. H. Melton, of Marshall Street Christian Church, officiating.

Both bride and groom are from Goochland county. The only attendants were Miss Ida Louise Kilby and Mr. Walter Shelton Armstrong.

The bride was gown in a tailored costume and carried Bride roses. About twenty-five intimate friends and relatives were present. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a Northern trip.

A Gentlewoman of Virginia.
Friends of Miss Maria Harris, of 202 East Main Street, this city, realize that in her passing from their midst, another of the fast diminishing number of Virginia gentlewomen of a former school has gone to her reward.

Gentle, gracious, modest and accomplished, those who knew her best alone realized the meaning and influence of her life. Both here and in Powhatan county, her early home, she stood as a type of what was truest and best and most unselfish in every relation of life. Her place will remain unfilled in the memories of many who held her dear.

Personal Mention.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Lee and Miss Annie Crawley attended the wedding of Miss Nellie Quinn to Mr. John Graham Sale, taking place in Lynchburg Wednesday.

Miss Agnes Dewry, of Minneola, Chesterfield county, will spend some time in Florida, with her sister, Mrs. DeFord.

Mrs. Thomas Moore and her daughter, Misses May and Julia Grant Moore, after some months' absence, have reopened their home at the corner of Fourth and Franklin Streets.

Mrs. Swanson left yesterday for Washington, where she will be the guest of her friend, Mrs. George Mayne.

Dr. John Thomas, of Washington, D. C., was an out-of-town guest at the reception given last evening by Mrs. R. C. Kent and Miss Kent, of Glenter Park, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Virginia Tucker ushered an enjoyable week-end house party at Virginia Beach, which included among others Miss Virginia Tucker and Miss Gora, of Wilmington, Del.; Messrs. Tanner, Boush and Traft.

Misses Virginia Sutton and Florence Garnett have returned from a visit to Mrs. C. V. Sutton, of Newport News.

Mrs. Alfred M. Randolph and son Alfred, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James B. Pace, in Richmond, are now the guests of Bishop and Mrs. Randolph, in Norfolk.

Acors—Marshall.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPOTSVILVA, Va., December 3.—Mr. William L. Acors, of Caroline county, and Mrs. Mattie Marshall, of Spotsylvania county, were married December 2d at Spotsylvania. The ceremony was celebrated in the parlors of Mr. J. P. H. Crismond, at Spotsylvania. Prominent among those attending were Messrs. Thomas Stokely, Coleman C. Richelle, Coleman E. W. Hockaday, Mrs. K. W. Goodwin, Mrs. S. J. Crismond and Miss Eloise St. Nicolas. The bride and groom will reside in Spotsylvania county.

Beale—Foster.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISA, Va., December 3.—Mr. Reuben Lindsay Beale, nephew of Hon. R. Lindsay Gordon, of Louisa, was married this morning at 3 o'clock to Miss Mary Browne Foster, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herbert Malory Boush, on Brown Avenue, Norfolk, Va. The newly wedded pair left after the ceremony for the home of the groom's parents at "Pageland," in Fauquier county, where they will make their future home. Mr. Beale has many friends in Louisa, where he made his home for several years.

Sawaw—Announced.
The marriage of Miss Courtney Norton Thayer, daughter of Mr. Henry A. Thayer, of Mount Airy, Va., and Mr. William Munford, of Uniontown, Ala., on Monday, December 14th, has just been announced.
